

A Natural Beauty

by Aletha Arnold

Hadassah was a woman of beauty – beauty deeper than the skin.

She found favour in the eyes of all who saw her for her beauty emanated from within.

How does a woman possess this beauty naturally?

How does one's spirit shine brighter than the eye can see?

When a woman is clothed in meekness there's no need for silver or gold.

The things of this world on her have no hold.

Once she's been touched by Him her life is never the same.

This natural woman has no need for paint, as it only masks the real you.

Let love be the accent of everything you say and do.

When you walk with the Master His attributes you will possess.

My sisters, let Yahuah dress you for eternal success.
